

chgrp (change group ownership)

This command changes a file's group. Call it like this:

```
chgrp GROUP FILE
```

This will change the group of FILE to GROUP. Some group changes may only be performed by root. You need to prefix →*sudo* in such cases. I rarely use chgrp, because →*chown* includes the command's functionality.